1	27/11/2020 16:45	27/11/2020 17:28	Clarification on Technical and professional requirement	Dear Sirs, about what reported on page 14 of the Tender Specifications: The selection criteria for technical and professional capacity will be assessed in relation to the combined capacities of all members of the group as a whole. The lead partner shall provide the required evidence on behalf of the group. We ask to clarify the right interpretation: - The lead partner has to be the one who carried out similar services in the country - The lead partner is responsible to give evidence of the services provided by the consortium, even if it is not the one who carried out such services. Waiting for a cordial reply Best regards LATTANZIO	27/11/2020 Please note that at tendering stage, you are required to submit only the Declaration on honour on exclusion and selection criteria and not supporting evidence. However, should you be required to submit evidence or be awarded the contract, the leader will provide the evidence for all members (even if it is not the one having the capacity).
