

CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY DECLARATION

I _____, hereby declare that I shall undertake to exercise the greatest discretion with regard to all facts and information coming to my knowledge in the course of or in connection with providing my services for the European Chemicals Agency (hereinafter referred to as 'the Agency').

I shall not disclose in any manner to any unauthorised person any document or information acquired as a result of providing my services for the Agency, unless the information is already publicly available.

I understand and accept without reservation that I continue to be bound by these obligations once finished providing services to the Agency.

Moreover, I also acknowledge receipt of the following rules:

- Rules for access to the ECHA premises
- Use of ICT facilities policy

(Please tick the relevant box(es) depending on which material you have received)

I further declare that I have read and understood these rules; I am aware of my security responsibilities and undertake to comply with both rules and accompanying procedures so that I can undertake my work in a manner which ensures strict security for ECHA.
